DEDICATION

"The Dynamic Duo"

Five feet two and eyes of blue
One advisor is good, but we had two!

Each of you helped to shape our dreams and goals into realities. You were the sparks that helped our spirits blaze. Your energy, enthusiasm, patience, expertise, and refreshing humor lit the path that led to this day. Thank you for sharing your many talents with us and helping us to discover our own. No problem was insurmountable, and no construction project too complex. As we turn the last page of our high school careers, two names will be inscribed forever. We dedicate this yearbook to Miss Ward and Mr. Gately because it is our turn to do something for you.

The Class of 1991

Dr. Robert J. Sinibaldi
Superintendent of School 1972 — 1991

The students and faculty of the Georgetown Schools, the Class of 1991, thank you for your years of dedication of time, effort and enthusiasm. Your presence will be missed next year.

David Henry — is a world renowned air-force pilot.
Joe Jovell — is a Model for Chess King.
Jon Ketcham — has won a Nobel Prize for his work in robotics.
Heather Kingan — wanted to become a model in New York, but found that her in her heart she really wanted to sing for MOP-N-GLO commercials.
Earl Klingelsmith — is still tripping over things.
Kevin Kyle — is a ski instructor at Vail Colorado
Jon Lane — has been crowned King Dishwasher at Vinwood Caterers.
Jen Leigh — is the executive manager of L.L. Bean and is a ski instructor in her spare time.
Dawn Leva — is a housewife married to a very rich man who takes her on vacations to warm beaches.
Vance Leyendecker — is most certainly somewhere and is definitely doing something, but no one is sure what.
Ann Liberty — has started a statewide organization against police officers who hand out overpriced speeding tickets.
Kristen LoCicero — is a professional shopper at Filenes.
P.J. Lynah — is "Stayin' Alive" at Chippendale's.
Jason Marr — is still playing his guitar.
Mike Marttila — is still searching for all his hats Mr. Silverman confiscated.
Kim McQuillan — is married to Chris and works collecting gossip for the enquirer.
Victor Melanson — made the Guinness Book of World Records for breaking all standing school tardy records.

Roger Mercaldi — has an ad contract with Soloflex and can be seen monthly on ESPN's muscle magazine.

Scott Merrill — grew his hair long, grabbed a microphone, acquired some groupies and is touring the country and making more money than anyone else in the class.

Steve McAskill — found that his job at Catgo was unprofitable, so he moved to Hollywood and is currently filming The God Father part 4.

Jen McLaughlin — moved to Boston to get closer to the Red Sox.

Joel McLaughlin — president of Hair Club For Men.

Marion Novak — moved to Washington State.

Jay Ogden — is serving a 10 year sentence after getting caught on the way back from Newburyport with the Golden arches strapped to the roof of his car.

Adam Perreault — is still hanging out at super Scoop.

Derek Pesce — finally gets his car to sit straight.

Ron Poole — was the Skip-Bo world champion until he signed a contract to model Adidas Swimwear.

David Prescott — is in the merchant marine with a lover in every port.

Leslie Reynolds — still hasn't stopped talking.

Sarah Rice — is the newest James Bond girl.

Melissa Ritter — finally found the place where she lost her voice 20 years previous.

Leslie Rondeau — owns a large accounting firm in Boston.

Heather Rowe — is working in Washington D.C. as head of the democratic party.

Christine Sahovey — is still making up detentions for coming to school late.

Brendon Sanger — is still chasing Julie.

Eric Sears — is living in New Hampshire and is the chief benefactor of UNH.

Sue Sheldon — is a sportscaster for NBC sports.

Darcie Sicotte — still goes to Basils every Thursday night.

Mindy Skerry — after a long day of eating gummy bears at the dentist office where she still works, she likes to go to a small café with Gabriel for a cup of nutmeg coffee.

Michele Skinner — is married to Chuck with five kids.

David Smith — is still living at Brendon's.

Jeff Spiliotis — is a chef in a fine French restaurant. (Actually, he just likes wearing the funny hat).

Shannon Spofford — is a gossip columnist for the Georgetown Record and is still living on Library Street.

April Stewart — is a marine biologist. Occasionally she goes undercover back to the fish Mart to find out what's really in the clam chowder.

Bonnie Stewart — is living in Aruba with Cam Nealy.

Erick Storer — is suffering from a terrible injury he got while playing professional soccer. But, don't worry he's sure to make a miraculous recovery.

Beth Tidd — became the star munchkin on a remake of the Wizard of Oz.

Keith Tobin — still won't eat vegetables.

Aaron Tompkins — is a pro WWF wrestler.

Tim Vanier — is living in Arizona making his tan darker

Suzanne Vaughan — is singing leads in award-winning Broadway musicals.

Rich Vieira — is an elementary school teacher, a jr. high school basketball coach, and head of the Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtle Society.

Ceil Wilkins — is still attending Bruins games.

Kerry Wilkinson — is flying the friendly skies as a stewardess for American Airlines.

Chuck Wilson — is married to Michele and has five kids.

Marlena Zapf — is trying to get an ammendment added to the Constitution stating that alphabetical order is discriminatory.

Geoff Chappell
Yearbook Photographer

Most of us have been together for the past twelve years of our lives. We've shared or rather survived the trials of adolescence with one another and matured into the young adults we are now. High school is an experience that enables us to learn by our mistakes so that someday, whether working, or attending college, we will succeed. At this point in time we appear so anxious to leave this sheltered place, but in future years we can look back at this book and recollect all the great times we had here.

Although some of us have been friends since grade school, many of us are still strangers to each other. I hope that this yearbook will enable us to remember not only those whom we knew as close friends, but also those who were always there for a friendly hello, the lunch money you needed, or the occasional ride home on rainy days. Strive and Achieve '91 — the world is waiting for us.

Jennifer Leigh, Co-Editor

We have tried some new things in this yearbook,
 And we hope you will see the
 work it took
 To pick the pictures, place them
 on pages
 And count the picas (which took us ages)
 Because of the long hours I ranted
 And rummaged, I will not take for granted
 The phrases and photos that just appear Between two covers. But, now I will fear
 Because I helped to make what all
 will see,
 People with complaints will find
 fault with me.
 But, that is the chance all who helped must take
 To insure that the yearbook which we make
 Is the best: to attribute our class;
 To hold the memories — to make them last;
 To show those who doubted us
 that we will
 Not only touch the top of that hill
 Of success. We will reach its highest height.
 Then spread our wings and take off for flight
 Toward the sky, the moon, planets
 and sun.
 No one will forget nineteen
 ninety-one.

Marlena Zapf, Co-Editor

To The Class of 1991:

I am proud to present this year's edition of the Georgian '91. The editors and committed have spent countless hours trying to compile and arrange our past thirteen years together.

Years from now this yearbook will be golden, (I mean royal) in helping you place the name and the face that have faded a bit in your memory. In the future after our reunions, when the gray haired guy with the glasses has called you that embarrassing old nickname from the past you will flip through this yearbook and find out just who that old friend used to be. I hope in twenty years you can look through this book and reminisce about the good times.

I'd like to thank Marlena and the others for all their help. Mrs. Clay and Mr. Luca, thank you so much for all your help. I wish everyone the best of luck! I hope you reach all your goals and varied successes in life. These precious days have flown by and the day we've waited for is here. We've made it and the proof is in this yearbook. Just remember one thing, never say Goodbye!

Good Luck!

Pam Boynton, Co-editor

You just call out my name,
and you know wherever I am,
I'll come running, to see you again.
Winter, Spring, Summer or Fall,
All you've got to do is call,
and I'll be there baby.
You've got a friend.
